 - b) law enforcement agencies and other government entities;
 - vi) credit reporting body;

- ii. and third parties who you have referred us to (for example, referees or authorised representatives)
4. How we maintain information security and data quality:
- a) We take reasonable steps to ensure your personal information is protected from misuse and loss and from unauthorised access, modification or disclosure.
 - b) To help protect the privacy of data and personal information that we collect and hold, we maintain physical, technical and administrative safeguards.
 - c) We may hold your information in either electronic or hard copy form. Personal information is destroyed or deidentified when no longer needed or when we are no longer required by law to retain it (whichever is the later).
5. Calix GigaSpire Modem:
- a) To provide you with a reliable and high-quality service, the Calix GigaSpire modem and associated Calix Service Cloud platform collect certain information. This helps us improve performance, resolve issues more quickly, and enhance your overall customer experience.
 - b) Information collected may include: device IP address and other unique device identifiers (including username, device name, and location identifiers), performance metrics, operating systems and versions, and service or fault-related data.
 - c) This information is securely transferred, stored, and/or processed in commonwealth countries which are GDPR compliant.
 - d) If you do not agree to the above, you should not install or use the GigaSpire modem or associated applications.
6. How we use your information:
- a) We collect personal information about you so that we can perform our business activities and functions and to provide the best possible quality of service to you. We collect, hold, use and disclose your personal information for the following purposes:
 - b) to provide our products and services to you and to send communications requested by you;
 - c) to consider, assess and process communications (including requests for services or complaints) received from you;
 - i) to conduct business processing functions including providing personal information to our related bodies corporate, contractors, service providers or other third parties;
 - ii) To enhance our services and monitor network performance
 - iii) for the administrative, marketing (including direct marketing), planning, product or service development, research purposes of us and our related bodies corporate, contractors or service providers;
 - iv) to update our records and keep your contact details up to date;
 - v) to comply with any law, rule, regulation, lawful and binding determination, decision or direction of a regulator, or in co-operation with any governmental authority; and
 - vi) to maintain our website.
 - d) Your personal information will not be shared, sold, rented or disclosed other than as described in this privacy statement or permitted by law.
7. Disclosure of your information:
- a) We may disclose your personal information to:
 - vii) our related bodies corporate, contractors or service providers for the purposes of operation of our business, our websites, to satisfy the terms of our Customer Service Agreement with you, fulfilling requests by you, and to otherwise provide products and services to you (including, without limitation IT systems and network administrators, mailing houses, couriers, payment processors, data entry service providers, debt collectors, and professional advisors such as accountants, solicitors, business advisors and consultants);
 - viii) comply with any law, rule, regulation, lawful and binding determination, decision or direction of a regulator, or in co-operation with any governmental authority;

- ix) service providers and other third parties with whom we have commercial relationships, for business, marketing, and related purposes;
 - x) develop our credit assessment and credit worthiness rating system; and
 - vii) any organisation for any authorised purpose with your express consent.
- b) We may combine or share any information that we collect from you with information collected by any of our related bodies corporate.
 - c) We may also disclose your personal information to credit reporting bodies for identity checking and credit related purposes (such as credit rating or worthiness, default listing, credit provision and financing). For further details, please see the 'Credit Reporting' section below.
 - d) We may, from time to time, disclose your personal information to an organisation that may be based outside the location where your personal information is collected.
- 4. Access and correction of your personal information:
- a) It is an important part of providing our services to you that your personal information is up to date. You may request access to any personal information we hold about you at any time by contacting us (see the details below). Where we hold information that you are entitled to access, we will try to provide you with suitable means of accessing it (for example, by mailing or emailing it to you).
 - b) We may charge you a reasonable fee to cover our administrative and other reasonable costs in providing the information to you (we will let you know at the time of the request).
 - c) We will not charge you for simply making the request and will not charge you for making any corrections to your personal information. As part of this request, we may need you to verify your identity and provide this in writing to us.
 - d) There may be instances where we cannot grant you access to the personal information we hold. For example, we may need to refuse access if granting access would interfere with the privacy of others or if it would result in a breach of confidentiality. If that happens, we will give you written reasons for any refusal.
 - e) If you believe that personal information, we hold about you is incorrect, incomplete or inaccurate, you may request its amendment.
- 5. How you can make a privacy complaint:
- a) If you believe that your privacy has been breached, please contact us using the contact information below and provide details of the incident so that we can investigate it. We request that all complaints be made in writing, so that we can be sure about the details of the complaint. We will treat your complaint confidentially, investigate your complaint and aim to resolve your complaint within a reasonable time.
 - b) At any time if you believe we have not dealt with your concerns, you can contact the Telecommunications Industry Ombudsman (TIO) for assistance. The TIO is a free, independence service that helps with phone and internet complaints. The TIO may be able to assist you where you are unhappy with the information we have given you, the time it takes for us to respond, or the way we respond.
- 6. To find out more about how the TIO can assist you:
- a. Phone: 1800 062 058
 - b. Email: tio@tio.com.au
 - c. Webpage: www.tio.com.au
- 7. Credit reporting:
- a) In providing our services to you, we may need to check your credit worthiness or assess your credit situation. This may require us to collect credit-related information from or provide personal and credit-related information to credit reporting bodies.
 - b) Credit-related information relates primarily to your dealings with other credit providers (for example, banks, other financial institutions, or other organisations that may provide you with credit in connection with their products or services), and can include:
 - i) identification information;

- ii) current and historical details about credit applications you have made, credit arrangements you have entered into, and information requests made about you;
 - iii) information about overdue payments, default listings and about serious credit infringements and information about payments or subsequent arrangements in relation to either of these;
 - iv) publicly available information relating to your credit standing (for example, bankruptcy and credit related court judgments); and
 - v) credit scores or risk assessments indicating an assessment of your credit worthiness.
 - a) Credit-related information may also include certain creditworthiness information that we have derived from the data that we receive from a credit reporting body. Sometimes we may collect this information about you from other credit providers.
 - b) We may disclose your credit information to credit reporting bodies, who in turn may include it in credit reporting information they provide to other credit providers to assist them to assess your credit worthiness.
 - c) We may use or disclose your credit information for other purposes such as:
 - i) developing our credit assessment and credit worthiness rating system;
 - ii) processing credit-related applications and managing credit that we provide, including assisting you to avoid defaults;
 - iii) collecting amounts, you may owe us in relation to such credit and dealing with serious credit infringements;
 - iv) assigning our debts or acting in connection with any securitisation or other financing arrangement;
 - v) participating in the credit reporting system;
 - vi) dealing with complaints or regulatory matters relating to credit or credit reporting; and when required or authorised by law.
 - vii) The credit reporting bodies that we may disclose your information to are Illion Australia (www.illion.com.au). You can find their contact details and how they manage your credit information on their website.
12. You have the right to request credit reporting bodies not to:
- a) use your credit eligibility information to determine your eligibility to receive direct marketing from credit providers; and
 - b) use or disclose your credit eligibility information if you have been or are likely to be a victim of fraud.
 - c) You have a right to obtain a copy of the credit reporting policies of any credit reporting bodies that we disclose your credit-related information to. If you would like to obtain a copy of any of these policies, you should contact the relevant credit reporting body directly using the contact details set out above.
13. Cookies and website analytics:
- a) To improve your experience on our website, we may use 'cookies'. Cookies are an industry standard and most major web sites use them. A cookie is a small text file that our site may place on your computer as a tool to remember your preferences. You may refuse the use of cookies by selecting the appropriate settings on your browser, however, please note that if you do this you may not be able to use the full functionality of this website.
 - b) Our website may contain links to other websites. Please be aware that those other websites will have their own privacy practices over which we have no control and have no responsibility.
 - c) Our website uses Google Analytics, a service which transmits website traffic data to Google servers in the United States. Google Analytics does not identify individual users or associate your IP address with any other data held by Google. We use reports provided by Google Analytics to help us understand website traffic and webpage usage. By using our website, you consent to the processing of data about you by Google in the manner described in Google's Privacy Policy and for the purposes set out above. You can opt out of Google Analytics if you disable or refuse the cookie, disable JavaScript, or use the opt-out service provided by Google.

- d) Our website may also interface with social media sites such as Facebook, LinkedIn, Twitter and others. If you choose to "like" or "share" information from this website through these services, you should review the privacy policy of that service. If you are a member of a social media site, the interfaces may allow the social media site to connect your visits to this site with other personal information.
